

WHAT WOMEN OF AMERICA THINK OF PE-RU-NA.

WOMEN OF LETTERS, OF SOCIAL FAME, THE ARTIST AND THE HOUSEWIFE.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of New York City. Mrs. J. C. Garrett, 83 W. 11th St., New York City, writes the following about Peru-na: "I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold, and Peru-na cured me. It is a great medicine."—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

Mrs. Frederick Williams, of Chicago. Mrs. Frederick Williams, President of the South Side Ladies' Aid Society, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following words of praise for Peru-na from 928 Cuyler avenue, Chicago, Ill.: "Four bottles of Peru-na completely cured me of catarrh of the head of several years' standing, and if my husband feels badly, or either of us catch cold, we at once take Peru-na."—Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Lillian Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Lillian Smith, 120 Hancock St., Brooklyn, New York, writes: "I have used Peru-na for a very bad case of catarrh with the best results, as I am entirely cured, having spent very large amounts of money on doctors and medicine without any profit."—Mrs. Lillian Smith.

Mrs. C. Dillion, of New York. Mrs. C. Dillion, of 278 Eighth avenue, New York, says: "I believe I am cured of catarrh of the head, thanks to Peru-na."

"The full feeling and terrible noise in the head disappeared. My trouble began with cold in the head; my nose ran for a day continuously, and I would awake with a terrible headache in the morning. The doctor consulted gave me something to relieve the pain, but it left my head stopped up."—Mrs. C. Dillion.

Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, of Illinois. Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, wife of the secretary of the German consulate, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman in regard to Peru-na: 841 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Peru-na Drug Mfr. Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—I suffered this winter with a severe attack of la grippe, and having repeatedly heard of the value of Peru-na in such cases, I thought I would try it. I used it faithfully, and began to feel a change for the better the second day, and in the course of a week I was very much improved. After using three bottles I not only found the la grippe had disappeared, but my general health was much better. I am satisfied that Peru-na is a wonderful family remedy, and gladly endorse it. Yours, Mrs. Theophile Schmitt.

Mrs. Holmes, of Illinois. Mrs. Emma Holmes, of 24 Chestnut street, Station A, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have been convinced long ago that there is no medicine equal to Peru-na. I think Peru-na the best and most invigorating medicine, and it certainly does full justice to what it is claimed to do. If only more women would try it they would be convinced."—Mrs. Emma Holmes.

Mrs. Clara Makemer, of Illinois. Mrs. Clara Makemer, housekeeper for the Florence Crittenton Anchorage Mission, writes from 32 Chestnut street, Chicago, Ill., as follows: "After repeated use of Peru-na and carefully noting the results, I can only speak of its medicinal value in the highest terms. I have also used it in cases of female irregularities and weak nerves common to the sex, and have found it most satisfactory. Peru-na deserves the confidence of all."—Clara Makemer.

Mrs. Worrell, of Massachusetts. Mrs. E. E. Worrell, 108 Orleans street, Boston, Mass., writes: "I was troubled for five years with catarrh and it cost me a great deal of money for doctors, until I read in the paper about Peru-na. I am now on the second bottle and am entirely well."—Mrs. E. E. Worrell.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, of Washington. Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the eminent barrister of Washington, D. C., has the following to say of Peru-na: "I have used your Peru-na both for myself and my mother, Mrs. Hannah J. Bennett, now in her 86th year, and I find it an invaluable remedy for cold, catarrh, hay fever and blood diseases; also a good tonic for feeble and old people."—Mrs. Belva Lockwood.

Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of England. Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says: "I take pleasure in recommending Peru-na for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months, and after the use of one bottle of Peru-na I am entirely well."—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

Mrs. Maggie Becker, of Appleton, Wis. Mrs. Maggie Becker, of 44 Lake street, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peru-na: "It is with pleasure I recommend Peru-na as a splendid tonic to any overtaxed person. I have also found it a relief in cases of severe backache and pains in the chest caused by cold. We are never without it at home and consider it a household blessing."—Maggie Becker.

Mrs. Evelyn Morse, of Minnesota. Miss Evelyn Morse, of 61 Adams St., Minneapolis, Minn., says: "I suffered for nearly three years with catarrh of the stomach. A friend advised me to try Peru-na. After using it I cured me entirely of all my symptoms."—Evelyn Morse.

Mrs. Hanna, of Washington. Miss Nellie Hanna, niece of Senator Mark A. Hanna, writes the following letter from 1211 P street, N. W., Washington, D. C.: "I used your Peru-na as a tonic, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all sufferers. I have also used it for dyspepsia with the very best results."—Miss Nellie Hanna.

Mrs. Rose Cullen, of Montana. Miss Rose Cullen, President of the Young Woman's Club, Butte, Mont., writes: "While finishing school I became very nervous and exhausted from over-study. I was weak and sick, and could neither eat, sleep nor enjoy life. A couple of bottles of Peru-na put new life in me."—Rose Cullen.

Mrs. Blanche Myers, of Kansas City. Miss Blanche Myers, 518 Penn street, Kansas City, Mo., has the following to say of Peru-na: "During each of the past four seasons I have caught a severe cold, when suddenly chilled after an evening party, and catarrh for several weeks would be the result. One bottle of Peru-na cured me, and I shall not dread colds any more as I did."—Blanche Myers.

Miss Julia Marlowe, of New York. Miss Julia Marlowe, the clever actress of New York City, has the following to say in a recent letter to the Peru-na Medicine Company: "I am glad to write my indorsement of the great remedy, Peru-na, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Miss Emma Herziger, of Wisconsin. Miss Emma Herziger, of Neenah, Wis., says: "Last year my system was completely run down and our family physician suggested that I take a journey to recuperate. My sister-in-law then told me to try Peru-na, first telling me how it had helped her. I did so, and found three bottles as good as three weeks vacation. I shall always speak well of Peru-na."—Emma Herziger.

Mrs. Anna Wells, M. D., of Illinois. Dr. Anna Wells, writing from the Park Gate Hotel, Chicago, Ill., says: "A nervous shock received by my daughter two years ago prostrated her. All the computations and advice of brother physicians had done no good until Peru-na was advised. She can now eat heartily of solids—she had been, not living, but dying, on liquids; menstruation, easy and comfortable, had suffered from dysmenorrhea and ovaritis."—Anna Wells, M. D.

Miss Dade Stegeman, of Illinois. Miss Dade Stegeman, Superintendent of the Chicago North Side Woman's Club, writes as follows about Peru-na from No. 12 Lowell Place, Chicago, Ill.: "Peru-na has often been used by members of our club in cases of stomach trouble and general debility, also recently in cases of la grippe, and always with the most beneficial results. I think a great deal of Peru-na—often recommend it to my friends, and am glad to say all who have tried it speak a good word for it."—Dade Stegeman.

Mrs. A. S. Tipple, of Minnesota. Mrs. A. S. Tipple, 16 Linden ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows: "Last winter in taking a journey in very severe weather, I caught a cold which settled on my lungs developing a severe case of catarrh of the respiratory organs. My family physician gave me only temporary relief, when my son advised me to try Peru-na. I sent for a bottle and in two days the cough had nearly disappeared and within a week I felt better than ever."—Mrs. A. S. Tipple.

I., writes from 29 Goodale street, Columbus, Ohio, the following: "I can bear testimony as to the merits of Peru-na. I have been taking the same for some time and am enjoying better health than I have for some years. I attribute the change to Peru-na, and recommend it to every woman, believing it to be especially beneficial to them."—Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton.

Mrs. Fleaharty, of Illinois. Mrs. Anna B. Fleaharty, writes from 61 Sixty-seventh st., W. Chicago, Ill.: "My health failed me a few years ago, and I seemed to lose health and spirit. One of my neighbors advised me to try Peru-na. A bottle was immediately procured and a great change took place in my daughter, as well as in my own health. Our appetites improved very greatly, the digestion seemed much helped, and restful sleep soon improved us so that we seemed like new women."

"I would not be without Peru-na for ten times its cost, and cannot speak in too high terms of its value as a medicine of wonderful curative properties."—Mrs. Anna B. Fleaharty.

Mrs. Mary Shanks, of Marshall, Okla. Mrs. Mary Shanks, of Marshall, Okla., writes: "Peru-na is the best medicine on earth. It has cured me of catarrh that I have had for seven years, and I only took six bottles. When I wrote you for advice I had frontal headache, stringy mucous in the throat, my stomach bloated often, and bowels irregular. Now I am cured."—Mrs. Mary Shanks.

Miss Anna Carsten, of Clayton, Ill. Miss Anna Carsten, of Clayton, Ill., writes the following letter in regard to Peru-na: "Your Peru-na did me so much good I believe I should have been dead by this time had I not used it. I am feeling so well now. I have not taken any medicine for four or five months."—Miss Anna Carsten.

Mrs. Katherine, of North Dakota. Mrs. J. L. Katherine, of North Dakota, writes: "Having made up my mind to try Peru-na for my health I got a bottle and after using it I was so well pleased that I purchased three more. I was suffering with catarrh of the head and throat, and was in pain from head to foot, but improved materially by the use of Peru-na."—Mrs. J. L. Katherine.

Miss Alvina Groth, of Wisconsin. Miss Alvina Groth, 124 College avenue, Appleton, Wis., writes: "Peru-na is a fine medicine to take any time of the year, but I find it particularly helpful to withstand the wearing effects of excessive heat and summer colds. I have now used it off and on for about two years."—Miss Alvina Groth.
